

CONSENT FORM

TO POST THE EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION ASSIGNMENT ON THE CARFMS ORTT AND PF WEBSITE

I, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge, understand and agree that my Experiential Education (EE) assignment on two key terms in the field of refugee and forced migration studies, prepared in the Fall Term ---- list year ----, as part of the course requirements for ----- list course number and title -----, at the School of Public Policy and Administration, Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies, York University, may be posted on the the website of the Canadian Association for Refugee and Forced Migration Studies (CARFMS) Online Research and Teaching Tools (ORTT) (<http://rfmsot.apps01.yorku.ca/>) website. I understand and agree that the said key terms could be modified or revised subsequently without my prior agreement.

Date: _____

Printed Name: _____

Student Number: _____

Signature: _____

Upon the Completion of the Student Assignments

After the completion of the student assignments, and with the consent of the students, instructors should send their student completed assignments to the attention of Professor James C. Simeon at jcsimeon@yorku.ca or Professor Idil Atak at idil.atak@ryerson.ca.

If you have any questions regarding this EE Research Assignment then please contact the professors noted above.

We encourage all instructors of refugee and forced migration courses to incorporate this EE Research Assignment in their courses, thus joining other instructors who are using this assignment to further their students' understanding of the subject matter of their course(s) as well as to help build and develop the A&PF web platform and e-learning for their students.